our own wings forget how to fly.*

Lovebirds

We have 3 pairs of beautiful Lovebirds! They maybe small but they are packed full of personality. They are bold, inquisitive, curious and always on the go. They live up to their name because they are often found snuggled up to one another. They love snuggle tents and lots of toys to chew up and destroy. They would do well in an apartment or house. Note: We do not ship parrots and generally adopt only in a 200 mile radius of Fargo, North Dakota. A pre-adoption home visit is required by a member of our adoption committee for every adoption. Adoptions are not first come, first served. We strive to find the most appropriate home for each parrot.
